STOCK MARKET IRREGULAR

Some Securities Weak, Despite a Good Demand in Many Quarters.

Burlington Strong, Notwithstanding Uncertainty Over the Alleged "Deal"-Sugar and Smelters Active. London Dealings Unimportant.

NEW YORK, April 9.- The Stock Market opened this morning showing traces of the pronounced irregularity which characterized yesterday's dealings. There was no new development of any import-ance over night, but from the opening an active demand for securities appeared. At weak all the morning.

The London market, which reopened for business this morning, furnished only small and irregular changes in prices for American stocks in comparison with yesterday's final level, and the transactions for foreign account were about equally balanced between the buying and selling side. The advance scored in the early dealings extended to points in many Notwithstanding the doubtful status of the so-called Burlington and Quincy deal, that stock advanced 1½ per cent in the initial transactions, and Northern Pacific was also decidedly firm. Other strong and active features were the Brie issues, Louisville and Nashville, Missouri Pacific, and Texas and Pacific. The Atchison shares were comparatively active.

There were fairly active dealings in the local traction stocks, which were firmer. In the industrial quarter American Smelting opened materially above yesterday's final prices, but receded rapidly on the appearance of heavy profit-taking sales Sugar Refining was notably strong. Amalagmated Copper was again the feature among the so-called specialties, and was particularly strong in the early dealings.

The Stock Market	during	g the	mor	ning

The news this morning was of little importance, but its general tenor was rather bearish than the other thing. The statement, for instance, that the Burlington people have refused the offer of the ton people nave refused the oner of the Northern Pacific Great Northern syndicate is distinctly suggestive of something more definite in the way of a statement that the deal is off for good. Ultimately thist the deal is off for good. Ultimately the Hill-Morgan people may, and probability will, get control of the Burlington, but that they will pay anything like the price hinted at in recent rumors is very doubtful. The story this morning was that the Burlington stockholders have refused $20 in 3½ per cent bonds for their tock, equal to somewhat more than a 7 per cent guaranteed dividend. It is much foreing probable that the Northern Pacific People were the obnes to refuse to carry on negotiations on any such terms. Despite the uncertainty over the deal Burlington and Northern Pacific were both decidedly strong this morning, perhaps the best securities on the list. Burlington Gas STOCKS.

Another rumor that has had a visited.

Another rumor that has had a puncture is the one to the effect that the Atchison, Southern Pacific and Rock Island are in deal. It is anounced or would be the statement of the a deal. It is announced on excellent au-thority that no such combination is be-ing considered.

Instead of these deals going through in great numbers this week, as many predicted a week ago, there is in fact much talk of rate wars in the West, and some discussion of the same unpleasant business in the East. It is said that the Burlington is arranging to fight the Rock Burlington is arranging to fight the Rock Island hard on excursion business this summer, and it is further announced that the New York Central and Pennsylvania interests are not on the friendless terms. These stories may not have any freat foundation, but the fact that they are put out apparently by insiders is rather significant at this time. It may mean that the insiders believe the market ought to be "kept down" for a time.

Sugar was again strong this morning. getting at one time as high as 144. Soon after the opening of the market it was announced that an advance of ten points Ri has been made on all grades of refined sugar. This was taken by some to mean that the stock is to be taken up by its friends for a considerable advance in the immediate future.

The statement was made a week or more ago in this column that the Southern would acquire these systems. The securities of the Southern Railway are expected to have a good advance in the near future, even although the gener-al market may be reactionary.

SAFE DEPOSIT AND TRUST COMPA hours today was not of such a nature that much idea could be formed of what the important people were doing or what the later developments would be. There was undoubtedly some buying to support prices, but whether this means that the insiders have allowed the break to go as SAFE DEPOSIT AND TRUST COMPANIES. insiders have allowed the break to go as far as they wish is another matter, regarding which, it is hardly worth while to express an opinion. The immense selling of stocks continued also, in many quarteis. The resulting changes of prices were irregular and for the most part unimportant. Perhaps the chances favor some further break before there is much of a recovery. The chances also favor a market much less broad and buoyant in any event for a week or two. Such a break as occurred yesterday always dampens the ardor of the public if it dees not quite drive them out of the marflet.

THE WIRE GLASS COMBINE.

Mississippi Company Secures Con-NEW YORK, April 9.-The combination of all the wire glass properties in this country is announced. The new concern, which will own all the American wireglass patents, and will control directly the attre production of the commodity, was corporated at Trenton, N. J., a few days to. It is called the Mississippi Glass mpany, and is capitalized at $1,500,000. Only $1,200,000 of stock will be issued at present. Wire glass will be produced for the present only at the factories of the Mississippi Glass Company, at St. Louis, and the Appert Glass Company, at Port Allegheny, Pa. The new company's pronoters expect to make important savings n the cost of management and merketing, but it is announced that present prices vill be maintained. Wire-glass one-fourth of an inch in thickness sells for 15 cents foot. The product is a comparatively w one, but has come to be recognize is a valuable fire retardent, as it has re-sisted a heat of 1,50 degrees. It is used instead of fron shutters in many large outlidings, and is accepted by fire underwriters. The Japanese Government has eccently ordered 100,000 feet for some new public buildings.
